

News of the District

DUNSTABLE

Bulletin News Service.
A "B" set was held at the Dunstable school grounds, drill a well, plant a garden and fix the fence. The following day the school was opened for the first time—Mrs. C. Collier, trustee; H. Leander, Max McCallum, teacher; Mrs. H. W. Weller, Mr. Copeland, teacher. The teacher very kindly made tea for the workers. Dunstable, June 28.

NAMAO

Bulletin News Service.
Mrs. W. H. Bedford, Namao, the delegate to the recent W.M.B. convention, attended the regular meeting of the Batail Auxiliary, held on Tuesday afternoon at the Namao school. W.M.B.

A splendid report was given, touching on the work of the auxiliary, the program mentioning among other things that our society gave most pleasure to the members. The auxiliary was very encouraging, giving an impetus to go forward to even greater things this year.

MAHASKA

Bulletin News Service.
Mrs. Allen Eager returned home last Friday with her new baby boy, a girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Eager are in our community for the summer.

Robert Cunningham has gone to Penney's Corner, where he is continuing to keep house for him.

Harry Welsh has sold his farm to Jim Allen.

Mrs. Alice Gunter, who has been a resident of Mahaska, and her son Ben, has returned to the U.S.

Miss Wilson, a teacher, who will be here until Aug. 1, will teach for Edna and the last of the fifth month.

The annual meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Donaldson.

Highway bills are posted over the country, announcing the big celebration of the 4th of July 1st.

Mahaska, June 24.

TOFIELD

The "Ketchum Home Improvement Club" will meet at the Ketchum school house on July 13th, immediately after the 4th of July, in moving away before that time.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dodd, who have been here for the past three days at Mr. Dodd's barn last evening, over 200 yards from their home, learned from the Ketchum school that a good time was reported by all.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dodd, proprietors of the Mac-Deen's Inn, Wm. Stearns pasture. They scored 22 to 5 in favor of the Mac-Deen's.

The Tofield Sunday school and the Tofield church will have a picnic on the old picnic grounds on Sec. 11, on July 15. Everybody welcome.

Tofield, June 25.

TAWNIAW

Bulletin News Service.
John L. Johnson is now operating his new business, "The Young People's Association and the Union Boys' Aid" here on the 25th.

Adelaide Larson has been ill with the mumps, but is now recovering nicely.

Mr. O. Wold is making a concrete foundation under the Pine Valley school.

H. Larpus with family, is now living in a house he has built on his farm for his car. A visit to the lake.

Vonterton. Brothers are through school and are now working and will start to operate their sawmill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hines have finished his work taking the census in Tawniaaw. June 26.

TRIN

Bulletin News Service.
The Tring and Riverton locals of the C.N.R. held a special meeting on the sports on the grounds near the Vermilion river, on Friday July 1st.

Baseball matches will be played at Riverton, Tring, Vermilion, and Stretton and Irvinville. There are also horse races, tennis, racing and other events planned to take place.

The refreshment booth will be in charge of the Riverton locals.

The Rev. Milburne Johnson has been minister with the United church for the past three months.

The new minister will be with the Tring school community Sunday, July 1st.

Quite a number of Indians from Fort Macleod and the surrounding bush in various parts of the district are expected to a considerable amount to attend the annual powwow this year. Mr. Charles Harrington has been engaged to conduct a new school for the Burkleale district. The new school will be in the meantime, the school will be in the charge of Mr. G. M. Hines—Tring, June 12th.

GLENEVIS

Bulletin News Service.
The Glenevus C.N.R. held a special picnic on June 19, in a grove near the station. The picnic was a success. A large crowd attended and a good time was enjoyed.

The estates were excellent and the open air festival was capped enough. He said: "The cream is on the top and the rest could only make our own sugar."

A large number participated in the afternoon and the games were danced in the evening. Some came from the neighboring districts and anyone who was present who were not invited to the next year's picnic were invited to come to the next year's picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hines, visiting their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hines, with their son and daughter, who are Edmonton driving teachers, visited them. They returned to the city on June 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Long have a farm here, and have been here for a year or so. There is bound to be improvement here as the country develops and the new school is the one line of the C.N.R. from Edmonton.

PILES

Do not use the old fashioned itching ointments and pills. No one has ever been cured but those who have had them removed by the various methods of treatment.

Dr. Chapman's Ointment will cure
all skin diseases, such as, piles, warts, ringworm, etc. It is a safe, strong
and cure.

Sample boxes free if you mention this name and address to Dr. Chapman.

PURE LINSEED OIL
Only 150 Gallons left. Per Gallon

$1.15

PAINT-

Going Faster Every Day, as our Customers are finding out the marvelous quality and the price. Every can is guaranteed.

COLUMBIA PHONO-GRAPH RECORDS
Hundreds of Them

MEN'S SILK LISLE
HOSE
Regular 85c, for

Ladies' Silk
Hose
Pair

CHILDREN'S AND GIRLS' RAIN CAPE
Regular $3.25, for

63c

35c

55c

$1.95

RIBBON REMNANTS
5 Yard Lengths
15c

ICE CREAM
2 cones 5c

AUTO TIRES
Special
$12.95

RIBBON REMNANTS
2 Yard Lengths
15c

SHELDON'S

Hot Day Boots

Every Day Great Clearing Lots Arriving

LADIES' WHITE CANVAS
HIGH BOOTS

All Sizes, Regular $4.50

$1.65

Children's COME AND SEE THEM AT

99c & $1.45

Men's and Women's Canvas Fleet Foot Shoes

$1.45

REMNANTS

Toweling

Sheeting

Dress Goods

Flowered Crettonne

Denims Sateens Prints

EXCELLENT GOODS

From one of the English factories

SCREEN DOORS

as low as

$2.25

TRUNKS

Moving out as low as

$6.95

GLASS---Clearing Out

8 x 10, per sheet	7c	12 x 24, per sheet	28c
10 x 12, per sheet	11c	16 x 20, per sheet	32c
10 x 14, per sheet	13c	24 x 24, per sheet	75c
30 x 36, per sheet			$1.60

30c & 35c

4 FOR 25c

BAKON

Small pieces; per pound

20c

$1

1 can Pineapple

2 cans Tomatoes

2 cans Corn

4 FOR 25c

BLACK Currant

JAM

Nelson's Pure. Regular 50c

per bottle

33c

ORANGES

do... 40c, 50c and 55c

Lemons, fancy, 50c and just

45c

Cucumbers, each

25c

Olives, 25c

Broccoli, Chicken, 25c

25c

Ham and Veal

25c

LEMONADE

do... 15c, 20c and 25c

COFFEE

do... 25c

CHOCOLATE, 25c

25c

PEANUTS

do... 25c

FRUIT COOKIES, from 25c to the 25c

TOPIARY

do... 25c

LIBBY'S Dill Pickles, tin

35c

FROG LAKE

Bulletin News Service.

The U.F.A. local held a special meeting last Wednesday evening for the purpose of organizing for the 4th of July 1st.

This local decided to join Le Park and Forterville locals in the purchase of a moving picture machine.

The arrangements have not been fully completed as yet.

The Le Park picnic for the benefit of the church is to be held July 1st.

The Forterville picnic is to be held on the 4th of July.

The U.F.A. local has appointed to take the census in this district.

The people are asked to visit the church.

The people were favored with a visit from Mr. H. H. Hines.

A number of visitors from Kootenay paid a visit to Frog Lake last week.

Frog Lake, June 13th.

Montreal Theatre Wholly Destroyed

MONTREAL, June 27.—The Midland Hotel, a famous Canadian house on St. Lawrence Boulevard was completely destroyed this afternoon by a fire which was started by the ignition of liquid waste in the basement.

The building and its contents are estimated at $40,000. The fire, which had been burning for a long time, was extinguished.

Whether any lives were lost is not known.

The building was owned by the Canadian National Railways.

It was the largest theatre in the city.

The building had been recently reconstructed.

The building was completely destroyed.

The proprietors are planning to rebuild the building.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED,

PUFFED-UP FEET

Instant relief for sore, aching,

tender, calloused feet

and corns.

You're footsick! Your feet feel drilled, puffed up, tender, aching,

calloused, sore, tender, sore, tender,

calloused, tender, tender, tender,

The China and Toy Shop

WIRE CANNING RACKS

Special 89c

Phone 4426

REED'S BAZAAR

M. ESDALE WILL ATTEND CONVENTION AT VERNON, B.C.

M. ESDALE will be the local head of the delegation at the fifteenth annual convention of the Western Canada Irrigation Association, to be held at Vernon, July 27th to 28th. Mr. Esdale has taken considerable interest in irrigation projects and is considered well qualified to be a good one by the local trade body.

Funerals

WILLIAM LEITCH. The funeral of William Leitch, of 6515 108A Avenue was held from Andrew Brothers' parlors Monday afternoon at 2:30p.m.

CHINOOK COAL
"BURN BY TEST" PHONE 4433JACKSON BROTHERS
TRADE JEWELLERS
2925 Jasper Avenue—Phone 1717
Marriage Licences IssuedCHASIN, ALLEY & CO.
LAWYERS
THEIR LADY'S BOUTIQUES
General Furs—Mink—Bathing
Phone 2218Alexander Hilpert Fur
Co., Ltd.
Furs Made to Order and Imported
Balmoral Bld., 10245 Jasper Ave.
(Opposite Corus Hotel)
Phone 4094DAWSON COAL
Phone 1780 and 2244DESIGNERS & MANUFACTURERS
ESDALE
QUALITY
PRESSCOAL
NUMBERSTONE
MANUFACTURERS

For Fine Watch Repairs

SEE THE Keystone Jewelry Co.
Cnr. 10th St. and Jasper Ave.
Responsible Jewelry Manufacturers
Licences IssuedJ. L. TIPP & SONS LTD.
TIPP
HE AILOR
Men's Tailors
1917 10th Street
Phone 6126In Memoriam Cards
Baptismal New Designs
Dredge & Crossland, Ltd.
PRINTERS 1912 10th St.
Phone 5128 1912 10th St.THE ALBERTA GRANITE & MARBLE
STONE CO. LTD.
Sells and installs granite and marble
for buildings in Western Canada.
WHY? Because we satisfy our customers.
SPECIALISTS
PHONE 4056
OFFICES: 1012 10th Street
EDMONTON, ALBERTACALCIMITE PAINTS—OLIVE
—GRENADINE
MARTIN RENOUR PAINTS
J. A. WERNER'S Hardware
"The Store of Satisfaction"ALBERTA COAL
Great Northern Coal Co., Ltd.
Phone 6355McCLARY'S RANGES
SHELFING, WOODWORK, PAINTS AND VARNISHES, AND OTHER
GOOD HARDWARE
THE NORTHERN HARDWARE
Limiter

Johnstone Walker's Daily Store News

Mail Orders Filled From This Ad. If Not Previously Sold Out.

Tuesday Is the Day to Choose Sports and Outing Apparel
For Canada's National Holiday, Dominion Day, and Afterwards

From the great outdoors comes the call of the good old summer time—the siren song of the brook and meadow, the lure of the golf course and tennis court, the thrill of green fields and shady nooks to make preparations for Canada's National Holiday, Dominion Day, Friday, July 1st.

And as everyone knows, half the pleasure of a holiday or outing depends upon the clothes with which one is attired. Tomorrow, Tuesday is none too soon to pay a visit to Johnstone Walker's to choose appropriate apparel.

Spit and Span White Gabardine

OUTING SKIRTS For The Holiday

Distinctively smart and practical styles as spit and span as newly fallen snow! And the season is now at hand when one simply can't have too many of them. Ideal for sports and outing wear, with a pretty colored sweater or slipover—also a favorite for street or shopping wear with a white blouse.

Of good quality white cotton gabardine with shirred back, belted and poofed in various ways, set-in slashed or patch, with button trimmings. All sizes to the short, the tall or medium short figures.

Prices, $3.50 to $6.50

AT $1.75 we are featuring a special value in Women's and Men's Outing Shirts of white jean in belted style, with pockets. Assorted sizes. Special . . .

$1.75

DAINTY NECKWEAR
Another Holiday Essential

If a dainty bit of neckwear happens to be among your holiday needs, you'll find some.

CRISP NEW ORGANIC COLLAR AND CUFF SETS in all white, sage blue and horna, lace-trimmed and hemstitched, with touches of colored embroidery. Priced set . . . . . $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00

CREPE DE CHENE TIES—Suitable for wearing with wash dress and middies, in sage green, turquoise, rose, gold, Paddy, purple, red, navy, mauve and white. Priced . . . . . 75c and $1.50

SUMMER MILLINERY

Fitted for Various Occasions

A magnificent assemblage of Summer Millinery eminently suitable for social hours, for out-of-door and for summer travel.

There are hats of fairy-like daintiness—large drooping bows, brim styles, capstitching, etc., with ribbons and bows. They are fashioned of organza, maline and georgette crepe combined with fancy braid, combined with lace, organza, lace and delicate little organza flowers, ribbons and wool embroidery. And the most interesting of all is the fact that prices are exceedingly moderate.

Men's and Boys' BATHING SUITS
For the Dominion Day "Dip"

Those who purpose spending the holiday at one of the beaches shouldn't delay the purchase of a New Bathing Suit longer than Tuesday. Our present showing includes a good number of lines and styles.

AT $1.50—A slightly better quality and an excellent value. Plus cotton pants, in navy blue with red trimmings. Sizes 34 to 44. $1.50

AT $1.50—We have the popular Jockey Bathing Suit in white, sage green, navy, black and grey, with assorted trimmings. Medium sizes and extra large sizes. Special value. Priced per suit . . . . . $1.00

BOYS' BATHING SUITS in fine cotton pants, in navy and cardinal, grey and cardinal, navy and black, sage green and black. Sizes 22 to 32. Special value, per suit . . . . . 75c

A BETTER QUALITY IN BOYS' BATHING SUITS with white attached navy and white shorts, in sizes 22 to 32. Special value . . . . . 75c

50 Pieces of English Zephyr Ginghams
Special 50c Yard

Ginghams of a quality such as these will fly over for you at a price such as this! This low price for these new, house dresses, apron dresses and children's wash dresses. Shown in a good variety of new plaid and check patterns in fast colors, 27 inches wide. Special per yard . . . . .

Lovely English and American Voiles at $1.50 and $1.75 Yard

Beautiful rich dark lace gowns such as fashion is demanding, in new and exclusive designs in harmonizing shades. Will make up one charmingly pretty afternoon dress, skirt front, lace trimmings, etc. Extra fine quality. Extra fine lace. Sizes 2 to 7. Special value . . . . .

50c

The Morning Bulletin

Published every legal morning by The Economic Publishing Co., Ltd., at the Union Building, 1010-1020 Jasper Avenue East, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

HON. FRANK OLIVER, President PROVINCE OF ALBERTA
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
Morning and Evening Editions
One cent

One week, delivered by carrier ..... $0.01
Two months, delivered by carrier ..... $0.02
Three months, delivered by carrier ..... $0.03
Twelve months, delivered by carrier $0.12
By Mail, Parcels Post

One week ..... $0.01
Three months ..... $0.03
One year ..... $0.12

U.S. Subscriptions: United States $0.10 per month; Canada $0.15 per month; Europe $1.00 per month.

Notice to mail subscribers: The Bulletin is a newspaper and is not liable on subscriptions. The rate of one year's subscription is $1.00. The owner subscriber has been paid. After that date, the rate is $1.20.

Label and if the date is not changed on the label, the date of the last issue of this paper will be promptly investigated.

Telephone 4242.

Printers, Publishers and Editors: Daily News, Star, Journal, Evening Journal, Star, Society Editions, Standard, Star, Standard, Circular Department, National News, Accountant.

UNITED STATES REPRESENTATIVE: Mr. Frank Oliver, 1010-1020 Jasper Avenue, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 1921

A Hitch in Definition?

Wages on Canadian railways, it is said, are not to be reduced on July 1st as expected. The railway management, it is explained, will wait until they see what happens in the United States. If the railway management, as it does, by the employees on the U.S., reads it will be made the basis of new wage scales on Canadian roads. If the U.S. railwaymen refuse to work at the low rates, the Canadian railway workers will probably do likewise. Despite the ruling of the U.S. Railway Labor Board, and the announcements of railway chiefs, the fact seems to be that nobody knows when or if such wages are to be reduced.

From the public point of view, it is taken to mean that no one, not even the railroads, is to be cut in freight rates, or when deflation in that item is likely to occur. That is the only interest the public have in the matter of lower railway wages. People are anxious to have the rate of the railroads reduced, except in so far as that is a necessary condition to the reduction of transportation charges. The railway companies charge that high wages are mainly responsible for the high rates. The exportable surplus of the country's farms produce does not command a price in the world market to make it possible for the producers to pay the existing freight rates and have much profit left. As the whole business condition of the country hangs on the question of whether the railroads' high rates are strangling trade.

If railway rates could come down and railway wages stay up, that would be satisfactory all round. The public interest of the transportation companies is that the roads cannot pay their way on lower freight charges unless their wage bills are scaled down very materially. If that is the case, the possibility of a general depression of the economy as a whole seems to be the prevailing idea. Ottawa, in relation to the administration of the lands and minerals in the north country. The only apparent course is to have the railroads pay the war debt by "conserving" its resources from development. Which is about as sensible as the notion that a landowner can pay his debts by leaving his land lying idle when he could let it out on a share basis.

More "Conservation."

Montreal has reserved 40 sections of farmlands along the Athabasca river from salt or other disposal that is from exploration, experiments, and so on. The railroads are the ones that the dispatch does not say. Presumably the decision is another out-crop of the fatuous notion that the way to make the country rich is to hold back its resources.

The public would prefer to have the prevailing idea. Ottawa, in relation to the administration of the lands and minerals in the north country. The only apparent course is to have the railroads pay the war debt by "conserving" its resources from development. Which is about as sensible as the notion that a landowner can pay his debts by leaving his land lying idle when he could let it out on a share basis.

That "Political" Economy.

The Grain Growers' Guide issues a "balance" as follows:

Mr. Creer and Mr. H. C. Jones have both declared in public statements that the railroads are prepared to provide all information to any impartial and unbiased commission that would be appointed to submit a report on the condition of the country being kept.

"No, lady," answered Werry. "With the time I've wasted I had an auto."

All I read, very well. But it was more convincing than this," preached the woman to whom the F.G.G. had either accepted the enquiry throughout, or had stopped by it injudiciously.

Legal proceedings were taken until the evidence, regarding false bottoms in the terminal, had been settled. Then, the fat was in the fire. Had the commission gone on its peacock way without discovering anything? Had it been decided that the chief constable, Shaw, would be in charge of the city police force.

A big crop is to be harvested. And with it is marketed unless the idea of getting it to the consumers overseas leaves a profit for the grower. What happened in the wheat-growing States had only then, the fat was in the fire. Had the commission gone on its peacock way without discovering anything? Had it been decided that the chief constable, Shaw, would be in charge of the city police force.

That would not be to the advantage of Canadian railway workers, or of anybody else. The best that could happen to the railways, a Serbian Prince, and if the Prince their employees, and the country, would be that every railwayman should be working in time for full and winter hauling of the goods bought with the proceeds. When the railways are busy the country is prosperous. The idle engine or freight train is a definite declaration that trade is slack. There are thousands of them in Canada at present. If the only way to get them back at work is to deficit wages, then the sooner deflating freight rates, the sooner that is done the better for them and for the country. It is better for himself than for everyone else. He is actually working at ninety cents per hour than that he should be idle because "the traffic won't stand." As a matchmaker is an exposed fraud, and ought to retire from the stage.

ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor to answer all your general questions sent to it by return of the Bulletin to the best of its ability, but it is not able to answer all the questions that are trifling or of concern only to the author.

To receive attention, every inquiry must be a genuine question. The information you have is not of general fact. Address your enquiry to the Provincial Department of the Royal Canadian Legion, The Bulletin, Edmonton.

Has a King George III coin any special value?

None that we know of.

To where should one write in England, the mail and telegrams, to the Royal Canadian Legion?

Address your question to the Canadian Legion, London, England.

Do you know of any company in Canada that might secure a fair seven per cent. yield?

We cannot give you any satisfactory answer.

I want to obtain a license for selling salt insurance. How should I proceed?

Write to the Provincial Secretary, Parliament Buildings, Edmonton.

Is it illegal to pay peat for money?

At present the houses in getting a raffle-off. Since peat tables are rented to the players, it would be illegal to take any risk in this connection.

I would like to give you some information in regard to the same in Ontario, Canada and Great Britain.

Would you refer to the deputy minister of education, Parliament Buildings, Edmonton. He will be able to give you detailed particulars.

With the Humorists

Why Subscribers Have That Wild Look.

Operator—That line is broken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Operator—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Patience—I am sorry to like you to go for your honeymoon in an airplane.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Patience—I am sorry to like you to go for your honeymoon in an airplane.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—It's not empty, but it's not full.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

An Economist.

"Your boy's sales taxes expensive?"

"Not always," said Farmer Connor.

"What's the trouble with that boy?"

Customer—What line are you calling?

The Drunken.

Customer—What's the trouble?

Customer—Not me—I should hate to think of it.

All Explained.

Officer in Charge of Riffle-range—What's the trouble with that gun?

Customer—It's not loaded, but it isn't empty, sir, it's loaded.

TELLS STORY OF FOUR DAY RUSH TO CADOTTE RIVER

Northern Rancher Described Wild Scenes at Time of Gold Rush.

RIVER SANDS 'SALTED'

Many Embryo Prospectors Were Deceived by the Reports From Cadotte.

J. A. Baxter, rancher of the Peace River district, fifty miles down stream from the site of the famous gold rush to the Cadotte River, has a vivid description of the four day gold rush to the Cadotte River, starting with Sunday June 24th.

The gold rush to the Cadotte initially started by Dr. Gauntier, as participating in experiments with gold in the river sand, was temporarily won over for the few days without question, Dr. Baxter says. As Mr. Baxter's ranch is on the Cadotte stream he had occasion to return from the town to the river bank to witness the effects of the supposed gold strike on Saturday. He was determined to see what truth there was in the story.

He found that the strike had been created by the arrival of a party of miners from the town of Grande Prairie a few months ago.

He was in England when the war broke out, and immediately offered his services to the Canadian Red Cross distinguished service during the war and returned to Canada at the outbreak of hostilities to the Peace River a few months ago.

He arrived in Alberta in June, 1917,

to attend the University of Alberta

which was then a branch of the McGill

University.

He settled at Grande Prairie a few months ago.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

miles from the town, and had

disappeared from view when number

and twenty six miles down stream

and across the mountains.

Party Returns.

Four days later a bedraggled, half

starved and half-frozen party was

wandering their way along the back

streets of Grande Prairie, a restaurant.

These were the record

breakers of cross country strike

days. They had come through mazes, making, and

and through mud, and had turned

out in peace river, three or four

